

Crazy facts about Jane C Wright.

Hey you there do you want to learn about Jane C Wright well so do I lets dive in!

Learning about the woman herself.

Jane C Wright is most known for curing cancer in new and more effective ways cool, isn't it? She loved to study medical stuff and all that jazz.

Where was she born
how did she get famous?

She was born in Manhattan NY I always wanted to go there.

- She got famous for finding good ways to cure cancer I'll tell you some ways later.

About her past

- She was born in a family of doctors and at the time not many African females were around. At a young age she started studying and wanted to be a doctor just like her family cool right?
- Well, she started small just curing patients and was happy doing it she wanted to follow in her family's footsteps. She is most known for curing cancer.

How does being famous affect her?

But now that she's famous she must study and work harder. Her goal is very important without doctors we would go extinct not actually we would die out a lot quicker now I'll explain her ways of curing cancer.

Examples of how she cured cancer.

I will tell you 3 ways how she cured cancer. She found out that drugs can fight tumors and cancer that's pretty cool. Another way is she used clinical trials to make cancer treatment even more effective that's smart. She turned chemotherapy into one of the best ways to fight cancer.

About her communication and family. (and about her)

Her family were doctors they cared for her and worked hard they loved helping others. Jane's communication with them wasn't the best they were not much phones at the time and not as much tech so she couldn't really call them. It was hard to meet with them because she was always busy. There weren't a lot of toys when she was a kid, so she mostly studied and played outside as a hobby.

Conclusion!

So did you learn a lot about Jane C Wright well I hope you did! Do you wanna be a doctor?