

Bridgewater State University Mayor Carpenter Merit Scholarship Application

Bridgewater State University (BSU) has two four-year merit scholarships each year dedicated students who are graduating from Brockton High School and choose to attend BSU. The Mayor Carpenter Merit Scholarship is worth the full-time cost of Tuition and Fees per academic year. The student may commute from their home or choose to live on campus. If you do live on campus you will be responsible for the costs associated with residential life living. Students must have a valid FAFSA on file to be considered for the scholarship and explain why BSU is their top choice university to attend. Decisions on who will receive the scholarship will be released to the student by May 31, 2021.
