Aniak Schools

AMNES school is now fully staffed. Temperature taking tasks and social distancing in the classrooms and hallways now seem like regular habit. AJSHS has one position open.

Students created a thank you poster for school Custodian day for Justin Allain.

Bus Driver appreciation day was organized for Dave Cannon.

Report cards for quarter one were sent, and parent teacher conferences were held telephonically. This was a bit of a change from past practice, but we are ironing out the glitches in the process.

Professional Learning was held October 21. This staff training focused on writing theory. A big thank you to Julia Boynton for her presentations on Spelling City and Class Dojo.

Reading adoption committee meetings were held October 22 and 23.

Literacy Night packets went home October 20 for grades k-5.

October 30, AMNES staff had planned cupcake decorating activities and a costume parade. Due to school transitions to distance learning, the cupcakes were sent home with school work. School work deliveries were completed with Dave Cannon and Ms. Kelly. Aniak schools are currently operating in distance learning.

Aniak Schools would like to thank the many volunteers that have continued to work on painting the halls in AMNES. It seems like every day there was a little something new added to the halls. We would also like to thank Bushtell, AC, and Kuik Run for donating items for the cupcake decorating activity.

The newly elected Aniak SAC committee has started discussing meeting scheduling and nominations for positions within the SAC.
