

You are a star because you make supper for me each night. You are a star because you stay with me. You are a star because you take me places. You are a star because you give me chores to do. You are a star because you love me. You are a star because you help me. You are a star because you do the dishes for me.
You are a star because you care for me!
