IDENTIFYING ACADEMIC NEEDS

It is our practice to regularly analyze data to monitor student learning and identify any individual academic needs, which could mean intervention or enrichment. We look at this data from a variety of levels including building, classroom, subgroup and individual student. Below are a variety of the data sources that are used:

SPRING 2021	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• aimswebPlus benchmark data• aimswebPlus student growth data• Monitoring of grades and attendance• Referrals to student success teams by school staff, parent or student
