OSSD TO RUN 60% SCHOOL DAY AHEAD OF HURRICANE MARCO'S ANTICIPATED LANDFALL

OCEAN SPRINGS, MS (OSSD) -- Out of an abundance of caution, Ocean Springs School District has elected to operate on a 60 percent day schedule on Monday, August 24th, 2020.

OSSD's Administration team has been in contact with the Jackson County Emergency Management Office this weekend to track the possible impact of Hurricane Marco with our schools and surrounding community. Based on the storm's continual shift westward throughout the day, OSSD will operate on a 60 percent day schedule on Monday. ALL extracurricular events and activities are canceled. The dismissal times for students are as follows:

Campus:	Release:
Oak Park, Pecan Park, & Magnolia Park	11:40 a.m.
Ocean Springs Upper Elementary	11:25 a.m.
E.H. Keys AEC	12:25 p.m.
Ocean Springs Middle School	12:35 p.m.
Ocean Springs High School	12:57 p.m.

OSSD will continue to track Hurricane Marco throughout the night and will assess road conditions at 5:00 a.m. on Monday. We will adjust and communicate any necessary changes immediately via email, phone, and social media.
