

“The History of American Capitalism”

This Semester Class is open to Juniors & Seniors as a Social Studies Elective

The course is built on the foundation of the origins of Capitalism as it evolved from European Feudalism – Mercantilism – Industrial Capitalism.

Then the course shifts into a comprehensive look at all the steps needed to create and sustain a viable business venture as an entrepreneur or an intrapreneur within an existing company.

The course incorporates guest lectures from prominent professionals, hands-on experiential projects, exploration of topics from company feasibility, and risk analysis through potential exit strategies.

If you want to start your own business someday, this is your class!

It encompasses all the key aspects of starting your own business and equips you with the tools you need to become a successful entrepreneur.

“Entrepreneurship in Action”

This Semester Class is open to Juniors & Seniors as a Social Studies Elective

This course analyzes the development of modern economic business startup models, entrepreneurship, and leadership through virtual and real-life projects.

If you want to learn by doing, this is your class!

This class will be a much deeper dive and hands-on approach to entrepreneurship.

