

Job Description – Residential Faculty

Washington Academy is seeking a highly motivated candidate for our position of Residential Faculty. This is a ten month residential position for individuals wishing to work and live in a private secondary school setting.

Residential Faculty will teach classes each semester, live and work as part of our residential staff, and coach or advise a club, activity or sport.

As part of their residential compensation Residential Faculty are provided health insurance, a dorm apartment, all meals, internet, cable TV, and an opportunity to travel on school trips.

Residential Faculty receive college course reimbursement, an opportunity to participate in a teacher orientation and training program and comprehensive professional development opportunities.