

Brantley Horton graduated from WRHS in 2009 and was a captain of the 1st state championship football team. He was the 2009 WR Male Athlete of the Year and recipient of the William T. Cohen Award. He received an appointment to the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis Maryland where he played four years of varsity football and majored in Economics. While at Navy, he visited the White House twice after winning the Commander in Chief trophy for defeating both Army and Air Force and played in the Armed Forces Bowl his senior year. Upon graduation, Brantley was commissioned as an officer in the United States Marine Corps where he currently holds the rank of Captain. During his time in the Corps, he has been an Engineer Platoon Commander, Staff Secretary of the 2nd Marine Logistics Group, Engineer Detachment Commander and is presently a Company Commander at 8th Engineer Support Battalion. Brantley credits encouraging teachers, coaches and positions of leadership opportunities while at West Rowan for giving him the foundation for reaching his goals.
