

Lower School Theatre Arts Teacher

Windermere Preparatory School is seeking a Lower School Theatre Arts teacher who has expertise in teaching theatre arts classes in an early childhood/elementary school environment. This position requires an individual who can be flexible, has great determination and is full of energy.

The teacher will educate students on acting techniques, methods, and styles. The teacher will also educate students on the history of performance and acting. Students will learn how to communicate, control and project their voices, and present themselves. The teacher will assess and grade student performance and maintain adequate communication with parents.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Carry out the mission and goals of the WPS Theatre Arts Department and the School
- Will teach theatre arts/drama classes to PreK-5th grade students
- Consistently updates job knowledge by participating in school development opportunities, seeks relevant outside professional organizations, keeps informed via publications, books, etc.
- Will work in collaboration with the Middle and High School Theatre Arts Teachers
- Will work in collaboration with the Lower School Fine Arts Team
- Direct/Support Staff for after school productions
- Participate in Fine Arts Department activities and programs
- Fundraise and network within the community as needed
- Other duties as assigned.

REQUIREMENTS

- Bachelor of Arts Degree in Theatre required.
- 3+ years Early childhood/Elementary aged student experience preferred
- Ability to work a flexible schedule and after hours as needed for after-school productions
- Ability to mentor and coach students
- Ability to articulate the Mission, Vision, and Values of the school as well as Nord Anglia Education
- Working knowledge of Google platform