Above is your current deductible and out of pocket information (if applicable), including the most current yearly balances. If you've recently received and paid for medical services and the claim has not yet been received from your provider, it will not show in the balance above. To see specifics on how your deductible and out of pocket totals were derived, please review your claims from the benefit period. If you have questions, or believe your balance information is incorrect, feel free to contact Customer Service.
