INCLEMENT WEATHER DAY PROCEDURE

12-month employees who work at departments/sites other than schools shall report for work at the regular start time unless notified by their supervisor at the direction of the Superintendent. On some inclement weather days employees may be given a delayed start time, and directed to report to their respective worksites by 10:00am. If on a delayed-start day, an employee chooses to not report on-site, they may use a PTO day in order to be paid. However, if these employees are directed not to report to work due to safety concerns, they are expected to work from home and shall receive compensation for the inclement weather/ emergency days.

SEIU EMPLOYEES

All SEIU employees are deemed essential employees, except Child Nutrition Employees, and all such essential SEIU employees, whether less than 12 month employees, and weather at school sites or non-school sites, that are closed due to inclement weather condition or emergencies, shall report to work at the direction of the Division Chief and the Superintendent.
