ARTICLE I NAME AND PURPOSE
This organization shall be known as the Class of 1983 of Wellesley College. Its purpose is to preserve the unity of the Class as an effective alumni association and as an active member of the College, and in furtherance of that purpose it shall operate exclusively for charitable and educational purposes.

ARTICLE II COMPOSITION AND MEMBERSHIP
Section 1. Active Members. Any graduate of the College who entered with the Class, or who, when she entered would normally have expected to receive her degree with the Class, shall be considered an active member of the Class. Any such graduate who in fact received a degree in another year may instead become an active member of the class with which she received her degree by notifying the Alumnae Office.

Section 2. Honorary Members. Any person nominated for honorary membership by the Executive Board of the Class may become a member of the Class upon election by a two-thirds majority of the votes received from a circulated ballot.

ARTICLE III OFFICERS
Section 1. Executive Council. The Executive Council shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Class Representative. The President shall serve as the Chair of the Executive Board of the class. The Executive Council shall have the authority to transact all business of the Class between meetings, and shall fill any vacancies in its membership for the remainder of the term.

Section 2. Tenure. Officers shall serve for a three-year period from the date of election.

Section 4. Duties. a. President. The President shall call and preside over Executive Board meetings, and shall perform other duties pertaining to that office. She shall serve as the liaison officer between the Alumnae Association and the College, and shall serve on the Executive Board of the Class. She shall serve as the chairman of all committee meetings and fill any vacancies on the Executive Board. She shall serve as the ex officio member of all committees except the Nomination Committee.

b. Vice President. The Vice President shall, in the event of the absence, disability or resignation of the President, perform the duties of the President.

c. Secretary. The Secretary shall perform the duties of Secretary for the College and the Alumnae Association for years.

d. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall perform the duties of Treasurer for the College and the Alumnae Association for years.

ARTICLE IV COMMITTEES
Section 1. Standing Committees. There shall be the following standing committees:

a. Class Record. It shall be the responsibility of this committee to prepare and distribute the Class Record, to ensure that it is distributed to all members of the Class.

b. Nominating Committee. This committee shall have charge of the nominations for the officers of the Class, and shall prepare the ballot as provided in Article VI.

c. Reunion. It shall be the duty of this committee to arrange for and take charge of reunion meetings.

Section 2. Appointment and Tenure of Standing Committees. The chairman of each committee shall be appointed by the President after consultation with the Executive Board of the Class and each chairman shall appoint a secretary of the committee. The terms of all standing committees shall expire at the end of the term of the Executive Board.

Section 3. Special Committees. The President, after consultation with the Executive Board, may appoint special committees and designate their purpose and time limit.

ARTICLE V MEETINGS
Section 1. Business Meetings. Regular business meetings shall be held at the beginning of each academic year. A Class reunion shall be held on the quinquennial plan.

Section 2. Special Meetings. The Executive Board may call special meetings, which may be held whenever and wherever it deems necessary, or may suspend particular resolutions to the members by mail instead of calling such a meeting. In either case the Secretary shall mail a notice of the Board's action to the members at the latest address shown on the alumnae records.

ARTICLE VI ELECTIONS
Section 1. Nominations by Committee. Nominations for offices shall be made by the Nominating Committee. Only one candidate shall be presented for each office. The names of such nominees shall be published in the Alumnae Office by February 1 of the reunion year and shall be sent to members of the class approximately eight weeks before the date of the meeting at which the election will take place. In the special case of the Class Representative, the Nominating Committee may submit the names of several qualified candidates for approval by a designated representative of the National Development Fund Committee. The final choice shall be made by the Nominating Committee from those approved.

Section 2. Nominations by Petition. Nominations may also be made by not less than fifteen members of the Class and submitted to the Nominating Committee not less than three weeks before the date of the meeting at which the election will take place. In the event of nominations by petition, a complete list of all candidates for each office shall be printed on a ballot and sent to the Class before the meeting.

Section 3. Elections. All officers shall be elected at the regular business meeting, or at a special meeting which may be called by the Executive Board (see Article V, Section 2). The vote shall be by voice unless there is more than one candidate for any office in which case the elections shall be by ballot. Candidates receiving a plurality of all votes cast shall be declared elected.

ARTICLE VII ACTIVITIES
No substantial part of the activities of the Class shall be carried on for profit, or for any purpose other than assisting the College, or attempting to influence legislation; and the Class shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication of) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. The Class shall not carry on any business or other activity for the purpose of carrying on (a) a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law); or (b) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law).

ARTICLE VIII CLASSES AND OTHER MONIES
Section 1. Annual Dues. The annual dues for membership in the Class shall be payable at such time as shall be designated by the Executive Board of the Class. Any change in the amount of annual dues shall be recommended by the Executive Board and submitted to the Class for action.

Section 2. Life Membership. The opportunity of becoming a life member of the Class is available at any time, and precludes further annual solicitations.

Section 3. Bank Accounts. All bank accounts shall be in the name of the Class, with funds payable on order of the Treasurer or the Class President, both signatories to be on file with the bank. A record of the location and number of such accounts shall be maintained in the Alumnae Office for the permanent class file.

Class dues: $75.00 per year.
Lifemembership: $1,000 due before June 3, 1938, otherwise it's $100 with payments of $10 per year for 10 years.
