ACT 8

FC Premier Pops, Directed by Andy Hartman

Highlights from the Star Wars Saga, John Williams, arr. Paul Cook

Premier Pops was founded in 2013 to expand the opportunities for extra-curricular instrumental music at CHCA's Founders' Campus. Comprised of Gr 6-8 students, this ensemble performs music from films and television, Broadway musicals, popular artists, sacred music, and well-known classics. Premier Pops captures the fun of playing a musical instrument while challenging students to grow in technique and musicianship.

Braeden Carney Gr 7

Piano Solo – "Phantom of the Keys," Nancy and Randall Fabar

Braeden, a current seventh grader, has been playing piano since kindergarten under the tutelage of Mrs. Jane Brumbaugh and has been a student at CHCA since PK-3. He enjoys sports which include soccer, basketball and working toward his first line brown belt in karate. He loves his two dogs Gizmo and Miss Murphy. His parents, Chaz and Pamela Carney couldn't be prouder of their son.

Audrina Fox Gr 2

Solo – Perpetual Motion, S. Suzuki

Audrina is seven years old and is in second grade. She began playing violin at age four. She loves the arts, unicorns, and all things sparkly and magical.

Micah Flynn Gr 6

Vocal Solo – "Join the Circus," Cy Coleman

Micah loves the stage! She has enjoyed singing from a young age and strives to grow as a performer. She has been in three shows at CHCA and is very eager to participate in many more. She also plays violin and enjoys dancing.

Natalie Wickler Gr 6

Dance Solo – "Ave Maria"

This is Natalie's seventh year dancing and fourth year with the CHCA Dance team. She loves all styles of dance including classical ballet and lyrical.

Piano Solo – Blues Improvisation

Stephen is in eighth grade and has been performing in ArtBeat for the last three years. He has performed in multiple CHCA plays as well as Playhouse in the Park's A Christmas Carol. Stephen has been playing the piano for three years. He is the youngest of four siblings and the son of Pastor Ennis and Sheree Tait.

Lacey Nettling Gr 2

Solo – Theme from "Witches Dance," Nicolo Paganini

Lacey is in second grade and has been playing violin since kindergarten. She also enjoys drawing, painting, playing the piano, and almost any other artistic adventure.

Kate Conn; Mackenzie Lorenz Gr 6

Vocal Duet – "The Bones," Maren Morris

Mackenzie loves singing and acting in CHCA productions. When not on stage, she plays violin, soccer, and basketball. Mackenzie and Kate have been friends since Kindergarten. Kate loves music. She sings, plays the upright bass, and plays piano. She also enjoys volleyball and spending time with others.

Armleder Pans Gr 6, Directed by Della Enns

"Clave"

Sixth Grade steel pan players are presenting a piece called "Clave," which is a percussion instrument especially integral in the development of Afro-Cuban music. This is a lively piece in four parts and includes work on the wooden xylophones. This has sharpened their ears and challenged them to listen to one another to achieve the feat of playing at a quick tempo, in varying rhythms as an ensemble.

Molly Wang Gr 1

Piano Solo – A Little Night Music, Mozart

Molly is in Ms. Wallace's first grade class. She has been learning piano for about a year. She wants to be a scientist. Her favorite place to visit is Hawaii-Aloha.

Porter Schulte K-Prep

Solo – "I'm A Little Monkey," Suzuki

Porter is in K-Prep and has been studying the violin one year with Dr. Woodin.

ACT 8

Peyton Doering Gr 2

Vocal Solo – “Hello Mudduh, Hello Fadduh,” Lou Busch

Peyton is a creative, energetic, and deeply thoughtful second grader. He likes to play piano, soccer, make art, swim, and jump on the trampoline. He’s got a great ear for music and can dance. He’s got a big sister in the seventh grade. He lived most of his first two years of life in Spain. Peyton has put his interest in singing and acting in this next act, in the song “Hello Muddah, Hello Fadduh.”

Judson Layman Gr 6

Piano Solo – Waltz in A Minor, Chopin

Jud is a sixth grader and in his third year of piano. He enjoys playing baseball, basketball, and football. He thanks Dr. Frautschi for her instruction, and he is so thankful for the opportunities God has given him at CHCA.

US Symphony Orchestra, Directed by Mrs. Amy Macy and Dr. Dan Grantham

“Warrior Legacy,” Soon Hee Newbold

The Symphony Orchestra is CHCA’s top Orchestra that functions as a String Ensemble, Pops Orchestra, Pit Orchestra, and Full Orchestra. As a Full Orchestra, the ensemble features stringed instruments as well as woodwinds, brass, and percussion. CHCA’s Symphony Orchestra consistently plays a repertoire of Orchestral Master Composers including Mozart, Beethoven, Brahms, and Dvorak and often ventures into Pop Music and Movie Soundtracks. The group frequently features guest soloists and showcases the many possible colors and creative sounds found in the diverse canvas of the Symphony Orchestra. This piece features a cinematic style composition that evokes heroism and bravery.
