Charles E. Smith Jewish Day School is more than a school. Our faculty and administration know and care for every student. Jewish values guide us in delivering an outstanding academic program and supporting our community through an emphasis on wellness and social-emotional education. Let us show you how your child can benefit from joining the CESJDS community.

“More than anything, JDS is a community. Raising children in today’s world is a challenge. Having people who are genuinely invested in our children and their success, who see them not just as students in a seat but part of our larger Jewish community and treat them as such is something we love about JDS. It is truly special.”

-Dr. Alexis Soffler, parent to Gabriel (Grade 11) and Jonah (grade 6), and Lower School Science & STEM Coordinator
