The code must be idealistic and at the same time practical, so that it can apply reasonably to all District Administrators. The District Administrator acknowledges that the schools belong to the public they serve for the purpose of providing educational opportunities to all. However, the District Administrator assumes responsibility for providing professional leadership in the school and community. This responsibility requires the District Administrator to maintain standards of exemplary professional conduct. It must be recognized that the District Administrator's actions will be viewed and appraised by the community, professional associates, and students.
