Position Title: Adjunct Faculty, Doctor of Occupational Therapy Program
OTD 711 Human Gross Anatomy

Location: Wingate Main Campus

The Department of Occupational Therapy at Wingate University is seeking an Adjunct Faculty member for the developing entry-level Doctor of Occupational Therapy (OTD) program that began in August 2019. The selected candidate will teach OTD 711 Human Gross Anatomy, a 4-credit course with cadaver dissection lab, scheduled for Fall 2021.

Qualifications:

- Master's or Doctorate degree from an accredited institution (Doctorate preferred).
- Minimum of 1 year of teaching experience related to gross anatomy (preferred history of teaching occupational therapy students).
- Demonstrate excellent organizational and communication (written and oral) skills, and a commitment to student success.
- Display initiative and a desire for professional learning and growth.
- Show excellent problem solving, critical thinking, time management, and leadership skills.
- Show integrity, strong ethics, a heart for service, and respect for others.

To apply, submit the following to Human Resources at careers@wingate.edu and Dr. Melissa Sweetman, OTD Program Director, at m.sweetman@wingate.edu:

- 1) letter of interest, 2) CV, 3) contact information for three references.

Review of applicants will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

The entry-level Doctor of Occupational Therapy (OTD) program is currently in Candidacy Status with ACOTE and will be eligible for Full Accreditation Status in the Fall of 2021.

Wingate, a comprehensive, independent and growing university, serves more than 3,800 students in North Carolina.
