Awesome Graphic Novels for 3rd Graders:

The images in graphic novels reinforce the story. The student needs to study the pictures in order to fully understand the text, and can make inferences about the story based on both the pictures and the dialogue. Brigid Alverson writes in School Library Journal that "Educators agree that graphic novels are useful for teaching new vocabulary, visual literacy, and reading skills." Students also gain confidence in their reading skills by being able to decipher what is going on in the story before they have learned how to read every word.

Read-Aloud Chapter Books for Parents to Read to Children:

It is wonderful to read picture books aloud to your children as long as you can, no child is too old for a picture book! However, it is also beneficial to read longer books aloud to your children that take a few sittings to finish. Reading 20 minutes before bedtime is a great way to spend time with your kids, and also share stories they will always remember. Here are some chapter books that kids enjoy during their elementary years. The content can sometimes be heavier however, so make sure and preview a book if it seems scary or too much for your child.

Avi: Poppy
Blue Balliet: Chasing Vermeer
Christopher Paul Curtis: Bud, Not Buddy AND The Watsons Go To Birmingham
Kate DiCamillo: Because of Winn Dixie & The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane
Louise Fitzhugh: Harriet the Spy
Madeleine L'Engle: A Wrinkle in Time
C.S. Lewis: Chronicles of Narnia series (read The Magician's Nephew first)
Grace Lin: Where the Mountain Meets the Moon
Lois Lowry: Number the Stars
L.M. Montgomery: Anne of Green Gables
Gary Paulson: Hatchet
Rick Riordan: Percy Jackson series
J.K. Rowling: Harry Potter series
