About ASHK

Inaugurated in September 2016, American School Hong Kong (ASHK) was founded by Esol Education, selected by the Education Bureau of the Government of Hong Kong through a competitive bidding process. A non-profit, non-denominational school, ASHK offers an accredited American education delivered by North American teachers, guided by Esol Education's 40-plus years of educational expertise in establishing and operating premium K-12 international schools worldwide. Located in Tai Po in the New Territories, ASHK's holistic approach to education promotes a student's full intellectual, physical, moral and social development. A strong STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Mathematics) focus is a key characteristic of the school, along with its Chinese Language program. Currently serving students from KG to Grade 10, ASHK will then evolve to a full-scale K-12 school, offering the International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma Program (DP) in Grades 11 and 12, in addition to a US High School Diploma. ASHK is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) and the Middle States Association of Schools and Colleges (MSA), two leading accrediting commissions for Schools in the United States. The spacious school site has undergone a full scale 80-million-dollar upgrade, with advanced laboratories and specialty rooms, along with an extensive sports and activities program, with an additional 20-million-dollar expansion planned for 21-22.

Esol Education's global network of ten international schools, serves thousands of families across the Middle East, Europe and East Asia. Esol Education's American schools are accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools in the USA, and by the Council of International Schools in Europe. Esol Education graduates matriculate to leading universities, with recent graduates currently attending the world's top 50 schools including Harvard, Stanford, Oxford, Yale, MIT and Columbia University.
