Aspiring to be a successful inspector of your department or school?

Learn more at the Penta Level 1 -
Inspection Accreditation course.

This 3-day, assessed course covers the key skills required to be a successful inspector of your own department or school. These skills include preparation for the inspection, the processes involved in seeking evidence and writing reports that will help your department, year group, key stage and/or school develop further.

This course is delivered by Penta International. Penta International is one of the leading independent providers of training, consultancy and inspection services in the United Kingdom and overseas.
