

W E L C O M E

Weaver 5

Kristy Grosfeld

I have been in the Early Childhood Education field for over 23 years. The collaborative classroom has brought a completely different love of teaching to me. I love to sing and dance, and create an environment where children can use their own imagination to grow and learn.

My wish for the children that come through my classroom is for them to know they are always loved, and I hope they have many fun memorable experiences with classroom friends and staff!

