

March 30, 2021

Valerie Feezor Hired as Principal for Davie County Virtual School

The Davie County School Board, superintendent and district leadership team are pleased to announce Valerie Feezor as principal for Davie County Virtual School.

Davie County Virtual School fills an ongoing need for Davie County families and provides students with an option that will be in place for years to come, even post-pandemic. With this 13th new school to the district, Valerie Feezor joins the Davie County Schools family. She has extensive experience and brings a wonderful outlook to virtual learning. In her career, she has been a math teacher, instructional specialist, and administrator in Rowan-Salisbury, Guilford County, and Davidson County Schools. She recently completed her doctoral classwork through Gardner-Webb University, and is currently working on her dissertation with a focus on rigor in virtual schools. Mrs. Feezor has a student-first focus and believes that even in a non-traditional setting, relationships with students are vital to their success in school.

Mrs. Feezor earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from UNC Wilmington, her Master of Education from UNC Greensboro, her School Administration Licensure from Gardner-Webb University and is currently pursuing her Doctor of Education degree at Gardner-Webb University. She lives in Lexington, with her husband, on their family farm.

Davie County Schools (DCS) serves Pre-K and K-12 students in the Piedmont Triad, just west of Winston-Salem. DCS includes 6 elementary schools, 3 middle schools, Davie County High School, Davie County Early College High School, Central Davie Academy, and Davie County Virtual School with a mission to engage, equip, and empower students. DCS provides a safe, innovative learning environment where each individual is valued, respected, and challenged. An engaging staff and community ensure students learn, grow, create, and discover their talents through experiences that prepare them for success. With a robust arts program, Career and Technical Education and home to the War Eagles, Davie County High School is a member of the Central Piedmont 4-A Conference, offering competitive and well-rounded experiences for students and student-athletes.

###DCS###