

GERMANY

The Capital of Germany is Berlin

Germany's population is at around 83 million

The language in Germany... is German!

"Hallo, wie geht es dir?"

The currency is in Euros

France, Switzerland, Austria, Poland, Netherlands, Belgium, Czech Rep. and Denmark all border Germany

Some important holidays include: Oktoberfest, Ostern (Easter) and Weihnachten (Christmas)

Famous landmarks in Germany: Cologne Cathedral, Brandenburger Gate, Neuschwanstein Castle, the Berlin Cathedral and many more!

Well known foods from Germany: Schnitzel, Pretzels, Käsespätzle, Döner Kebab and Currywurst (just to list a few ;)

SOME FUN FACTS

- 1/3 of Germany is still covered in forests and woodlands
- There are over 2,000 castles in Germany
- Germany is one of the world's largest car producers
- The first printed book was in German
- German is the third most taught language in the world
- There are over 300 different kinds of bread in Germany
- Germany's native clothes include the dirndl and lederhosen
- The name Germany in German is Deutschland
- Germany is a member of the EU
- The Christmas tree originally came from Germany
- Gummy bears were first invented in Germany

The Zugspitze is Germany's highest point with an elevation of 2,962 meters

Germany has a generally temperate climate

Brandenburger Gate in Berlin

Schnitzel

Neuschwanstein Castle

Käsespätzle

Cologne
Cathedral

MANY different kinds of breads including pretzels!

Berlin Cathedral (Berliner Dom)

German
Shepherd - a dog breed that originated from Germany

