

Anti-Asian Racism Resources

This resource guide was created in response to the rise in Anti-Asian/American and xenophobic harassment and violence during the current global pandemic.

The guide has been prepared to:

- raise awareness of issues facing Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) communities.
- increase understanding of how one can support the AAPI communities through volunteering, responding to discrimination, and taking action.
- demonstrate how one can be an ally - an informed bystander, and how to report hate incidents.

This list provides links to bystander intervention training in support of the AAPI community, data on AAPI incidents of racism and U.S. census for each state, local, and national AAPI organizations as well as lists of recommended books, articles, podcasts, videos, teaching resources, and social media.

A special thanks to Hai-Nhu Tran and Eunice Kim of Stop AAPI Hate for their support. This guide was compiled by Mary Anne McGill, the HS Librarian, on April 16, 2021.
