

WIDA ACCESS for ELLs 2.0

What is ACCESS for ELLs 2.0?

ACCESS for ELLs 2.0 is an English language proficiency assessment for Grades K–12. The test is administered every year to help school districts monitor the English language development of students identified as English language learners.

What is the purpose of the test?

ACCESS for ELLs 2.0 measures students' abilities to understand and produce English used within school settings. The four sections of the test are Listening, Reading, Speaking, and Writing.

Why does my child have to take the test?

Your child is identified as an English language learner. Your child will take the test every year until his/her scores meet the criteria to exit the language support program. Contact your child's school for more information on how your child was identified as an English language learner.

When will my child take the test?

Every state sets a time frame for schools to administer ACCESS for ELLs 2.0. Schools schedule when students will take the four sections of the test during the testing time frame. Contact your child's school for more specific information on when your child is scheduled to take ACCESS for ELLs 2.0.

How are the test scores used?

Scores from ACCESS for ELLs 2.0 can be used in many ways. Parents can use the scores to advocate for their child. Teachers use the scores to plan instruction and assessments. Districts use the scores to evaluate their language support programs, to monitor student progress in acquiring English, and to determine if a student is eligible to exit an English language support program. Scores are also used to meet federal and state accountability requirements.

Questions to Ask

Parents can use the following questions to obtain more information about their child's testing experience:

- How will my child take the test?
- Who will give my child ACCESS for ELLs 2.0?
- Where will my child take the test?
- Did someone from the school explain the test to my son/daughter?
- Are all of my child's teachers aware that he/she is taking the test?
- If my child has an Individualized Education Program (IEP), what accommodations will be provided to him/her during the test?
- When and how will the scores be shared with me?

Contact your child's school if you have questions about ACCESS for ELLs 2.0.

Kindergarten ACCESS for ELLs

Students in Kindergarten take a paper format of the test which engages students with cards, books, and grade-appropriate test items. Students at this grade level take the test individually with a test administrator.
