

ACCESS for ELLs Exam

20 -
21

The following are appropriate and available accommodations for the ACCESS for ELLs 2.0 Exam. Accommodations must be specifically noted in a student's IEP or 504 accommodation plan. They must be designated before the start of exam administration within WIDA AMS by the Office of Assessment Administration.

Embedded Designated Supports	Notes
Manual control of item audio	May not be used on Reading domain. Once initiated, the audio cannot be paused or stopped.
Repeat item audio	May not be used on Reading domain. Listening audio may be repeated only one time.
Extended Speaking test response time	Student is provided up to twice the recommended testing time to complete the speaking domain.
Non-embedded Designated Supports	Notes
Interpreter signs test directions in ASL
Read Aloud Listening test response options by human reader
Repeat Listening test item response options by human reader
Read aloud test items by human reader
Repeat test items by human reader
Large Print version of test
Braille version of test
Scribed response
Extended testing of a test domain over multiple days
Extended testing time within the school day
Student uses assistive technology to respond to test items
Student responds orally using external augmentative and alternative communication device or software

Accommodations