5. Sign in with Microsoft

Next, select Microsoft

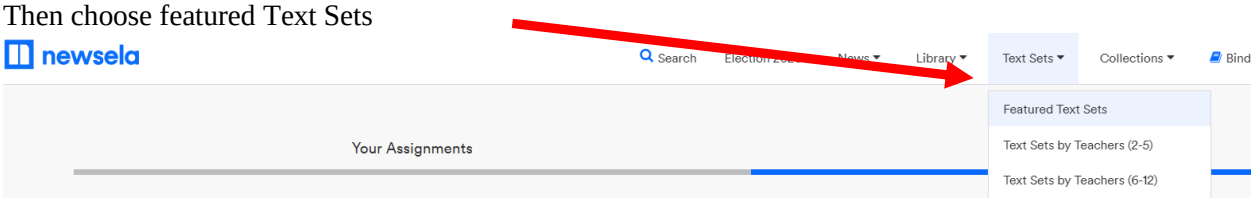

6. Log in with your school account.

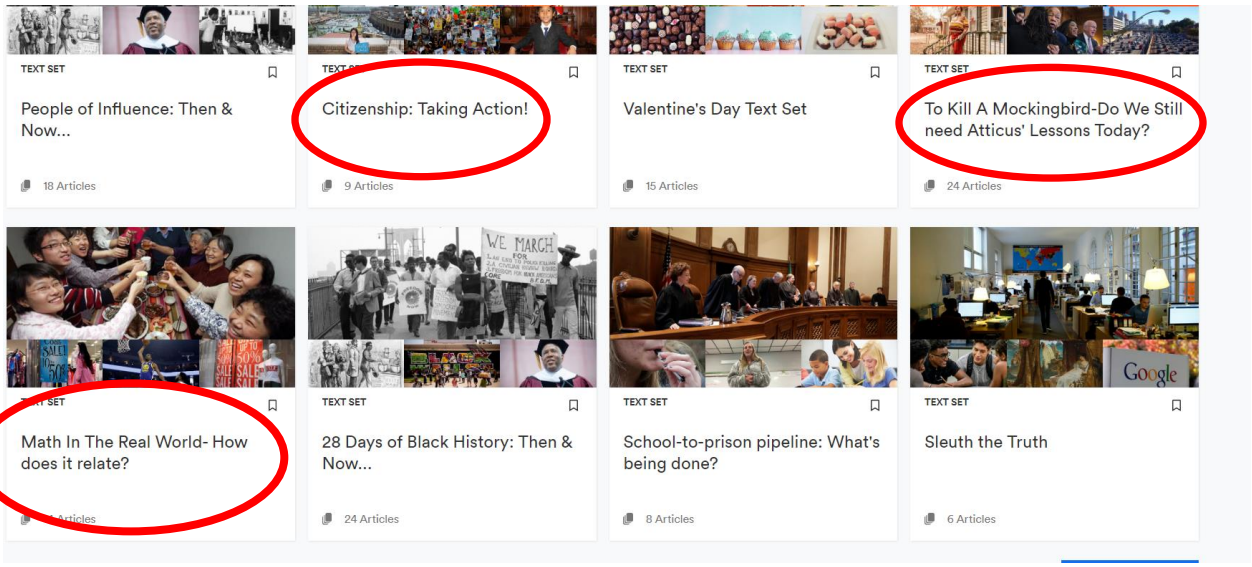

On the Newsela dashboard, choose text sets:

Then choose featured Text Sets

Note: There are a variety of subject matters with a range of articles. You can choose Citizenship: Taking Action! Or a literature based text set, To Kill a Mockingbird—Do We Still Need Atticus' Lessons Today? Or a Math text set!

Select a text set and do the following:

1. Read three (3) articles from your selected text set and complete all comprehension questions and quizzes.

2. Choose one of the articles and complete a summary of the article on a separate sheet of paper using the following starter prompt below:

In the article [insert article title] written by [insert author], the author [insert appropriate verb: argues, explains, proposes, discusses]…

Then, in a few lines, describe what the article is about. Do not include exact words from the title in the description of the topic.
