This non-padded camp provides an opportunity for participants to hone their techniques and skills at a particular position or learn the fundamentals of a new position before donning the pads in late summer. In addition, this camp will benefit those kids playing flag football as throwing, catching, and defending the pass are essential components of the camp. The ECS Football Staff will also cover the importance of Mark 10:45, and what it means to be a servant leader in the camper's life at home, school, and in the community. This camp will be located at the ECS-Shelby Farms Campus on Legends Field.

Lower School Summer Reading

- $125
- 9:00 a.m.-11:30 a.m.
