Thank you from Mr. Burstein:

We are down to the final three weeks of what will forever be know as "The Pandemic School Year." It has not been easy for students, teachers, or families and we thank you for everything that you have done to help us keep your students engaged and helping them find their love for learning. As we all look forward to the summer, please remember that learning never stops. Reading with your child, practicing math facts and asking questions about their environment are all simple things you can do to enhance your child's learning. Parents play a huge role in their children's education, and something as simple as reading a book can have impacts that will shape their future forever.
Stay classy sharks, and don't forget to smile!
