

School Community Council (SCC) Agenda

Zoom Meeting

November 18, 2020 3:30 P.M.

Attendees: Frances Battle, Lamar Spotted Elk, Jenni Micheletti, Meagan Mullen, Josiah Helbling, Jill Ekstein, Andrew Gee, Nancy Wilson, and Kelli Neuteboom

- Greetings Mrs. Mrs. Micheletti
- Approval of last minutes- Minutes from previous meeting were approved
- Welcome Mrs. Battle
- Calendar
- ✓ End of Trimester – November 20, 2020- Report cards will be mailed by the district
- ✓ No School – November 26-27, 2020- (Thanksgiving Break), the 25th is an asynchronous day
- ✓ No School – December 21, 2020 – January 1, 2021 (Winter Break)
- Rules of Order and Procedures Mrs. Micheletti/Mrs. Battle- must be posted on website, our SCC holds elections in the fall/ all members of SCC will sign a compliance form about conflicts of interest/ our school statement on conflicts of interest is:
  - If any member of Nibley Park School K-8 SCC feels they have a conflict of interest, they will speak with the principal, committee chair, and/or committee co-chair. Those individuals will discuss and bring to the committee through the agenda if necessary. All members of SCC have signed a district compliance form.
- Remote Learning All
- ✓ Feedback- Successes/Concerns- Special needs students are struggling and extra time above and beyond school time is necessary/some parents think their child is doing well but then sees their grades on PowerSchool where working is missing or given partial credit/it's getting better, parent-teacher conferences were helpful in clearing up any miscommunications, feedback from teachers has improved/kids seem to be maintaining-doing their best
- ✓ Up-date from Board Meeting Mrs. Battle/All- some parents would like a new survey about remote learning and the current Covid issues—this should be forthcoming./According the board meeting on 11/17/2020, the district plan that has been approved (4-3) is as follows:
  - K-1 students will return to in-school learning on January 25
  - 1-2 students will return to in-school learning on February 1
  - 4-6 students will return to in-school learning on February 8

- Secondary has yet to be determined

Since we are a K-8, we have to decide how to plan for this and the school is working on that, including lunch- since cafeteria will not be large enough for social distancing, the auditorium will be used as well. Also, discussions are happening around cleaning, masks (they are required), partitions, water bottles, etc/ currently, K-2, ELL, and Sped students are allowed in to the school for small group instruction on Wednesdays. ELL and Sped may come in on any day. EE students have the option of in-person learning M,T,TH, and F in small groups as well./ It has been approved that small groups of struggling students from other grade levels may also in the building./Surveys for parents and teachers about moving to in-person learning are forthcoming

- Wellness Plan Mrs. Battle- looked over the plan and the items not marked always were discussed/we have the Fresh Fruit/Veg program for K-6/School pantry is monthly
- School Success Plan (SSP)/Smart Goals/ Land Trust
- Next Meeting
- Other- motion made to move the January SCC meeting to the 20th in order to discuss the in-person learning starting on the 25th.
- Closing
