Summer Assignment for English 9 & English 9 Honors (Summer 2021)

Required Book:

1. Persepolis by Marjane Satrapi
ISBN-8601419944736

Directions: You are to complete both parts of the assignment listed below. Summer assignments are due the first day of school, late work will not be accepted.

1. As you read, you will need to create a 10 part comic strip of an event from the story from another character's perspective. Find an interesting character (not Persepolis) to make a comic strip story.
 - a. To start, pick a character that you find interesting and one that experiences major events. Re-do the one event in that new character's perspective.
 - b. Make an outline of 1-10 in your notebook to help you plan the story from the character's perspective.
 - c. When you have the outline and have planned the story Make a 10 box comic strip with 5 boxes on one page and 5 boxes on another page.
 - d. Make sure that each box has dialogue and that each box is in color.
2. When you are almost done reading the graphic novel, write a one and a half page, double spaced essay describing how the events within the novel relate to current events today. Discuss at least 2 or more events from the novel to compare and contrast with current events.
