Monthly Outreach Project: Britepaths

Sat. June 5th 3-5pm and Sun. June 6th 7:30am-12pm and 4-pm

Britepaths is a dedicated leader in developing sustainable solutions that stabilize low-income working families, build resilience through financial literacy and workforce development, and provide supports for children. Their services are designed to help individuals and families in the Fairfax County area who are struggling to make ends meet. Often, they are working hard, but they live paycheck-to-paycheck. Any kind of unexpected expense, such as a car repair, rent hike, or medical expenses, can throw them into a financial crisis. OLGC parishioners have been generously supporting this annual drive for over 20 years. In the past, we collected and delivered non-perishable grocery and personal items for the June delivery but due to COVID-19, only grocery gift cards are being provided to these families.

This month we will be collecting:

- Gift cards to major local grocery stores – Giant Food, Safeway, Aldi, Walmart
- Monetary donations – Make checks payable to "Britepaths".

Donations will be collected at the Bell Tower Circle in front of DeSales Hall

- Saturday, June 5th, 3pm-5pm
- Sunday, June 6th, 7:30am-12pm and 4pm-6pm

Your donations are greatly appreciated. Any questions, contact Peggy Loudin, peggy.loudin@cox.net, 571.213.4003.

OLGC will be celebrating our Baccalaureate Mass on Sunday, June 13th at the 10 am Mass.

A Baccalaureate Mass is a liturgical celebration that honors the senior class graduating from high school or college. It is celebrated to give thanks to God for the blessings given to the graduating students and to their families. All graduating high school seniors (Catholic, public, or private) and those graduating college, either graduate or postgraduate, are encouraged to participate in this Mass. During this special Liturgy, graduates from the OLGC community will be honored and will receive the Church's blessing as they move onward on their life's journey. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, there is a limited number of seats in the Church. We ask that you RSVP by June 6th, using this link www.signupgenius.com/go/30e044ea8a72ea7fc1-baccalaureate. Graduates are asked to wear their graduation gowns or other appropriate attire. Caps are not needed. We hope to be able to have some reception afterward. Please contact Gerard Hall, liturgy@olgcva.org, 703-896-7411 if you have any questions.

Come pray the rosary with Our Lady of Good Counsel. We will gather each Sunday in Mary's Garden at 9:15am to pray the rosary in English and at 11:15am to pray the rosary in Spanish. All are welcome. Recemos el rosario con Nuestra Señora del Buen Consejo. Acompáñenos los domingos a las 11:15 am en el jardín de Maria para rezar el rosario en español por nuestra parroquia, la sociedad y nuestro país. Todos son bienvenidos.

The Catholic Diocese of Arlington Newsletter Sign up to receive special messages from our Bishop Burbidge, learn about unique opportunities to get involved, and be the first to know the news about our Diocese! The Diocese of Arlington is home to an estimated population of more than 600,000 Catholics living in 21 counties and seven cities in central and northern Virginia. Parishioners live out their faith at 70 parishes and six missions, and more than 17,500 students attend 45 Catholic pre-schools, elementary and high schools. <https://mailchi.mp/arlingtondiocese/emailnewslettersignup>

This week's second Collection is the Catholic Communication Campaign. Bishop Burbidge recorded a video for the USCCB to heighten awareness of the efforts to continue to spread the Good News, "One Church, One Mission": www.youtube.com/watch?v=IYzw7OIL0XQ. This campaign connects people with Christ and builds Catholic communities in the United States and developing countries using the internet, television, radio, and print media. Half of the money collected remains here in the Diocese of Arlington to fund local communications efforts. HELP FOR FAMILY CAREGIVERS - Some organizations will help cope with the emotional toll of caregiving. But what about assistance with the financial impact? That's where Uncle Sam steps in with a collection of federal tax breaks, some of which have been enhanced for this year. You won't necessarily qualify for each one, but you should at least check them out. This information was excerpted from an article on taxes that appeared in the May issue of Kiplinger's Retirement Report. AARP also has some good information on their website: www.aarp.org/caregiving/financial-legal.

Credit for other dependents. If the relative you're caring for can be claimed as a dependent on your tax return, you may be eligible for a $500-per-dependent tax credit.

Dependent care credit. The child and dependent care credit may apply if you pay someone to look after an adult family member while you work or look for work.

Flexible spending accounts. Two types of FSAs – medical and dependent care – could help with caregiver costs.

Medical expense deduction. If you paid medical expenses for a family member, you may be able to deduct those costs, but there are stipulations you must meet. For example, you must itemize to claim this deduction, which is limited to medical expenses that exceed 7.5% of your adjusted gross income. There are others as well. Be sure to keep good records of your expenditures.

Head of household. Tax rates may be lower and the standard deduction higher for people filing as a head of household on their tax return. To qualify as a head of household, a family caregiver must be unmarried and pay more than half the cost of keeping up a home.

Future tax breaks? During the 2020 campaign, President Biden called for a new $5,000 tax credit for family members who provide long-term care for elderly relatives. He also proposed allowing caregivers to make "catch-up" contributions to their retirement accounts. Although these ideas have yet to be included in any of the president's economic plans, that could always change with time.

COLA for 2022? – According to the Kiplinger's Retirement Report, an increase in inflation that's likely this year could mean a bigger cost-of-living adjustment for Social Security recipients in 2022. A bump in benefits of about 3% is anticipated.

ELDER WISDOM – Most people don't think I'm as old as I am until they hear me stand up.
