Public Report

- Looking at a new bell schedule. Have to change for year 2022 to no earlier than 8:30 by state law. We would be starting at 8:40 due to bussing.
- Trying to make seniors feel more normal. Examples
  1. Sunrise in the stands
  2. Sunset activity will have food trucks & movie in parking lot
  3. Senior awards will be hybrid: live presenters and zoom students
  4. Prom dinner in the parking lot
  5. Graduation will be in person
- AP testing starts 5/4/2021
- Seniors will not be taking science exam
- New Chromebooks have arrived
- Camera for classes are here, but will practice with them before giving them to teachers
- Will have a June meeting
- Note: Who is going to do council next year?

Public Comment

- None

Business

- CHS is in Preliminary Categorical Budget: Title 1; Parent Involvement; Supplemental Concentration. Shift with supplies and Core Title 1 monies for more freedom to spend elsewhere.
- Total $159,332.00

Meeting adjourned by Mark Swanitz and Marti Schaller at 3:12pm
