America the Beautiful

Music by Samuel A. Ward | Words by Katharine Lee Bates

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for patriot dream that sees beyond the years,
Thine alabaster cities gleam, undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

Loomis Chaffee Hymn

Music by Ludwig van Beethoven, Hymn to Joy (from Symphony No. 9)

Words by James S. Rugen '70 and Timothy C. Lawrence with echoes from the Loomis Family Testimonial (1878), the will of John Mason Loomis (1900), and "Out of the Hearts of the Founders" by Knowler Mills

Wellspring, font of truth and beauty,
Harvest of the Founders' dreams;
Built upon a settler's homestead,
Rising o'er two noble streams:
Loomis Chaffee, honored always,
Home to each who seeks and strives;
Flame undimmed and shining brightly,
Shrine for better, grander lives.

Stemming grief, the Founders strengthened,
Forging dreams that conquer tears;
Granting deep, embracing wisdom,
Sowing hope for future years.
Loomis Chaffee, honored always,
Home to each who seeks and strives;
Flame undimmed and shining brightly,
Shrine for better, grander lives.
