The Love Letter by Anika Aldamuy Denise

See You Later, Alligator by Sally Hopgood

A departing tortoise has his bags packed and is almost ready to set out on an adventure, but he can't leave until he says good-bye to each of his animal friends.

Frog on a Log by Kes Gray

In a rhyming text, Cat explains why Frog must sit on a log, even if it is uncomfortable.

Is Your Mama a Llama? by Deborah Guarino

This book is an enchanting animal guessing game in which Lloyd the llama sets off to find out what kind of animal each animal comes from.

There's a Bear in my Chair by Alex Latimer

Poor Mouse! A bear has settled in his favorite chair, and that chair just isn't big enough for two.

Early Readers

Biscuit books by Alyssa Satin Capucilli

A little girl and her small puppy share excitement and adventure while enjoying the simple joys of childhood.

Duck, Duck, Dinosaur books by Kallie George

Meet Feather, Flap, and Spike. They're three unlikely siblings who each want to stand out.

Katy Duck books by Alyssa Satin Capucilli

Katy -- a feisty ballerina-in-the-making who loves to twirl like a leaf, stretch like a flower, and float like a swan.

Noodle books by Hans Wilhelm

Fun, playful stories about a young maltese who seems to always find his way into mischief.

Puppy Mudge books by Cynthia Rylant

Henry and his lovable puppy, Mudge, will entertain readers with all of their antics and adventures.

Wordless picture books are important additions to your child's library. In the absence of words, your child will be compelled to ask questions, make predictions, and read characters' facial expressions and body language to gain meaning. Wordless books provide the opportunity to increase vocabulary as well as to encourage writing.

Wordless Picture Books

Owl Bat Bat Owl* by Marie Louise Fitzpatrick

A mother owl and her three little owlets live happily on their branch. That is, until the bat family moves in.

The Lion and the Mouse* by Jerry Pinkney

In award-winning artist Jerry Pinkney's wordless adaptation of one of Aesop's most beloved fables, an unlikely pair learn that no act of kindness is ever wasted.

Little Bird* by Germano Zullo

A man drives his truck up to a cliff's edge. Unable to go any further, he opens the back door of his truck and a flock of birds flies out, but, as the man soon discovers, a small timid bird remains.

Fly* by Mark Teague

This silly wordless picture book will keep young readers laughing as Baby Bird figures out that he must flap his wings to fly - whether he likes it or not!

Little Fox in the Forest* by Stephanie Graegin

When a young girl brings her beloved stuffed fox to the playground, much to her astonishment, a real fox takes off with it!

Go, Dog. Go!
One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish
The Cat in the Hat
Fox in Socks
Hop on Pop and more!

Fairy Tales, Folktales, and Fables

The Little Red Hen
The Three Little Pigs
Little Red Riding Hood
Goldilocks and the Three Bears
Chicken Little
The Gingerbread Man
The Princess and the Frog
Cinderella
Jack and the Beanstalk
Sleeping Beauty
Pinocchio
Elves and the Shoemaker
Ant and the Grasshopper

Nonfiction Texts

Kindergartners love reading informational books about animals. The following subjects are often favorites of our youngest readers.

Cats, Dogs, Horses, Pigs and Sheep
Lions, Tigers, Bears, Elephants, and Hippos
Sharks, Whales and Fish
Insects and Spiders
Snakes, Crocodiles, Turtles and Frogs plus more!

One of the most rewarding and important gifts you can give your child is the love of reading. By fostering the love of reading, you will open doors for your child to a world of information and knowledge. Reading encourages the growth of children emotionally, intellectually and spiritually and enables them to become life long learners. It is our hope that you will enjoy many wonderful books with your child this summer.

Happy Reading!
