John T. Hoggard High School

Academic Letters

The Hoggard Academic Boosters sponsor the Academic Letters Program. Letters are awarded to students receiving a 4.0 for the first time. Students who previously received a letter and maintained a 4.0 for the fall semester will receive a pin for their continued excellence.

North Carolina Academic Scholars

To become a North Carolina Academic Scholar, a student must achieve a minimum un-weighted cumulative grade point average of 3.5 through the first semester of their senior year and complete the course of study outlined by the state.

Presidential Education Awards

This award was established by the U.S. Department of Education and honors outstanding educational achievement. The criterion for a President's Education Award is a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.5 computed at the end of the first semester of their senior year.
