A Traveling Showcase of Minnesota Music - MINNESOTA MUSIC COALITION PROJECT - CARAVAN DU NORD
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2012 at 7:30 PM

Shattuck-St. Mary's is pleased to partner with the Minnesota Music Coalition to host one of the performances in MMC's CARAVAN DU NORD: A Traveling Showcase of Minnesota Music. On weekends during September and October, seven Minnesota communities host residencies and performances by some of the state's best independent artists. Groups selected for the tour include Mason Jennings, Jeremy Messersmith, Pert' Near Sandstone, Brother Ali, Tapes 'n Tapes, Peter Wolf Crier, Solid Gold, Haley Bonar, Rogue Valley and Halloween Alaska. Check out the Minnesota Music Coalition website for a complete listing of the Caravan du Nord Tour. Pert' Near Sandstone rejuvenates American stringband music with raw energy. They take old time music off the back porch, throw out the hillbilly reputation, work hard and play even harder. They play tightly-crafted original material that lends itself to the modern audience, as well as being stewards of the old-time and bluegrass traditions. Over the past several years, the band has been touring widely, playing many festivals and gaining wider recognition as a major force on the American roots music scene. Based out of Duluth, Charlie Parr brings his heartfelt and plaintive original folk blues and traditional spirituals for the opening set. www.pertnearsandstone.com • www.charlieparr.com • www.mnmusiccoalition.org

Every holiday season bustles with the sounds - and stress - of the season. Simple Gifts, the six-member ensemble led by award-winning musician Billy McLaughlin, performs acoustic instrumental and vocal music that harkens back to a quieter, simpler time. The ensemble performs traditional carols, hymns, and holiday favorites... with a focus on what Christmas is really about. With Celtic whistle, piano, acoustic guitar, violin and beautifully blended female voices,

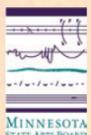

Simple Gifts combines traditional folk music with more modern elements that both soothe and inspire listeners. Billy McLaughlin and Simple Gifts were so well received when they came to SSM in 2010, they're back by popular demand. www.simplegiftsmusic.net

Michael Johnson combines three elements to create a wonderful evening of music... the texture of his voice, the meaning and depth of his lyrics, and his masterful guitar playing. His voice immediately identifies him as the man who sings "Bluer Than Blue," "Give Me Wings," "That's That," "Almost Like Being in Love," "This Night Won't Last Forever" and other landmark songs. Billboard Magazine put it well when they wrote... "One of our smoothest balladeers demonstrates he still has the master's touch..., soft, intricate vocals... elegant production." Join Michael Johnson for an intimate solo concert in Newhall Auditorium's fine acoustic surroundings. www.mjblue.com

Presented by ILLUSION THEATRE

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 2013 at 7:30 PM

www.illusiontheater.org

For over 35 years, Minneapolis-based Illusion Theater has been using the power of live theater to catalyze personal and social change. People are still talking about the superb production of Willa Cather's "My Antonia" that Illusion brought to the Newhall stage in 2011. This year they bring "Bill W. & Dr. Bob" a universal human story of the dangers of isolation and the healing power of fellowship. In 1929, famous New York stockbroker Bill Wilson crashes with the stock market and becomes a hopeless drunk. Dr. Bob Smith, a surgeon from Ohio, has also been an alcoholic for 30 years, often going into the operating room with a hangover. Through an astonishing series of events, Bill W. and Dr. Bob meet and form a relationship, helping to keep each other sober. "Bill W. and Dr. Bob" is an amazing and often amusing account of the two men who pioneered Alcoholics Anonymous, as well as the story of their wives, who founded Al Anon.

Presented by COMMONWEAL THEATRE COMPANY

www.commonwealththeatre.org

The Commonwealth Theatre Company of Lanesboro, Minnesota produces one of Norwegian playwright Henrik Ibsen's plays each year and remains the only theatre company in North America with such a commitment. Known as the father of modern drama, Henrik Ibsen is considered one of the world's greatest playwrights. His ability to turn revolutionary philosophical ideas into brilliant social dramas inspired the likes of other modern playwrights. This year, Commonwealth takes Ibsen on tour with one of his most notable plays, A Doll's House (1879). Controversial in its time, the drama criticizes the traditional roles of women and men in 19th Century marriage.
