Grades 1, 2 & 3

The Great Reading Race

Grades 1, 2 & 3

Who can participate?

All students entering 1st -3rd Grade

How does my child participate?

1. Read, read, read!
2. Record your reading on the “Record Forms.”
3. Complete Google Reading Form by Friday, August 13, 2021.
(This form will be emailed the first week of school.)

Why should my child participate?

1. Did you know, research shows that . . . the more you read, the better reader you will become, reading increases your vocabulary, helps prevent learning loss over the summer, improves listening skills . . . and much, much more!
2. There are great prizes . . . Medals, chocolate bars, and a few surprises for the top readers in each grade!!

What books can my child read?

Students can read anything! Just keep in mind that students must read Bible pages in addition to the General books in order to earn a medal.

* Bible pages include . . . reading from the Bible, Daily Devotions, Children’s Bibles and Bible Stories.

10 Bible verses are equal to 1 page

* General books include . . . magazines, family read-alouds, non-fiction (folktales, tall tales, fables, fairy tales, books on animals, science, art, music, sports, hobbies, etc.), poetry, jokes, fiction, history, and biography.
