

Thank you to everyone who participated in our Scary Story Contest! Even though this year is weird and wacky, we still had over 100 submissions!! EVERY story was awesome and it was nearly impossible to pick. For those of you who did not get chosen for the top prizes, we have special bookmarks at the library to thank you for participating. Just tell us you're here to pick up your scary story bookmark when you come to curbside.

Thank you all again and we can't wait to see what you come up with next year!!
