

Statement

CLCS is committed to fostering an anti-racist and humanistic environment that is inclusive and welcoming for all. We recognize that the diversity within our community is both visible and invisible, therefore we adopt practices that are essential to inclusive teaching and learning. CLCS creates and sustains an inclusive, equitable and respectful environment where each person feels welcomed, is supported, and thrives.