

FIRST AID/CPR REQUIREMENTS

The district shall have at least one staff member at each school and work site who holds a valid Certificate of First Aid Training approved by the Department of Labor and Industries, U.S. Bureau of Mines, the American Red Cross, or equivalent training provided by the District.

The superintendent shall ensure that necessary safety and health standards are implemented to comply with Department of Labor requirements.

Adoption Date: November 1, 2006