

Students entering Spanish II and II-A

Grammatical topics that should be reviewed:

- · Gender and number of nouns
- · Adjective formation and Agreement
- · Formation of present tense
- · Formation of present progressive tense
- · Formation of stem change in present tense
- · Formation of preterite verbs
- · “Ser” Vs “Estar”
- · Use of the verb “gustar”
- · Formation of imperfect verbs (For Spanish II-A only)
- · Uses of the preterite vs. the imperfect (For Spanish II-A only)

The review can be completed by utilizing the Colby website: <http://personal.colby.edu/~bknelson/SLC/index.php>

Two items are to be turned in to your teacher on the first day of class:

1. Write a reflection about the grammatical points that you reviewed, additionally indicate those points that you found to be difficult or did not recall.
2. Write a level appropriate journal entry about a special day from your summer. Describe where you were, who you were with and what you did on the day.
