

Cannon School Dress Code

The purpose of Cannon School's dress code is to promote professionalism, respect, a positive self-image, and show school spirit. Students should come to school dressed for learning, looking professional, respectful, neat, and modest.

The diagram illustrates the Cannon School Dress Code with various clothing items and their requirements. It is organized into two rows of items, each with a corresponding text box explaining the rules.

Row 1 Items:

- Sweatshirt: A hoodie with the Cannon logo and the word "CANNON" on the chest. Text box: "Sweatshirts and hoodies are plain, or have a Cannon or college logo."
- Collared shirt: A polo shirt. Text box: "Collared shirts are encouraged and are plain, or have Cannon logo."
- T-shirt: A plain t-shirt with the Cannon logo and the word "CANNON" on the chest. Text box: "T-shirts are plain without graphics. Cannon logo t-shirts may be worn every day. (T-shirt material should be heavyweight.) Undershirts are not permitted."
- Strapless top: A tank top. Text box: "Shirt collars should be no lower than 3'' from the collarbone and should conceal all undergarments (including bras, bralettes, sports bras, or underwear of any kind) and cover navel. Strapless tops are not permitted. Cleavage should not be visible."

Row 2 Items:

- Shorts: A pair of shorts. Text box: "All shorts should have a minimum of a 4'' inseam, and be free of rips, tears, and frayed edges. Underwear or the lack thereof should not be visible."
- Pants: A pair of trousers. Text box: "Pants should sit at the waist, and be free of all rips, tears, or frayed edges. Underwear or the lack thereof should not be visible. Leggings are not permitted."
- Dress: A long, sleeveless dress. Text box: "Dress tops should be no more than 3'' from the collarbone and the hem must be 4'' from the top of the knee. Strapless dresses are not permitted."
- Skirt: A knee-length skirt. Text box: "Skirt hem must be 4'' from the top of the knee and be free of rips, tears, and frayed edges. Underwear or the lack thereof should not be visible."

Dress Down Days

On designated days, students may wear relaxed dress including: sweatpants, athletic shorts (must adhere to the 4'' inseam rule), leggings, yoga pants, ball caps, hats, or any school appropriate t-shirt/sweatshirt.

Senior Privilege Dress

ONLY Seniors may wear college t-shirts everyday and enjoy relaxed dress on Fridays.

Spirit of the Dress Code

No hats or caps in the building. Because fashion trends change, body types are different, and clothing fits differently on different people it is important to abide by the "spirit" of the dress code, which is professional, respectful, neat, and modest.

Students not abiding by the rules or "spirit" of the dress code will receive an infraction.

If any student violates the dress code 5 times, that student will lose ALL dress down privileges for the remainder of the year and the deans may create a custom dress code for that individual.
