population

Who are Students in Transition?

According to the McKinney-Vento Act, Homeless Children and Youth are:

Individuals who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence...

This includes:

- ◆ Students doubled up, sharing the housing of others, couch surfing, and *unaccompanied youth.
- ◆ Living in emergency or transitional shelters
- ◆ Living in a motel or hotel.
- ◆ Living in a short term trailer park or campground.
- ◆ Sleeping in a public or private place that is not designed for regular sleeping accommodations.
- ◆ Sleeping in substandard housing or bus or train stations, etc.
- ◆ Migratory children living in the above conditions.

What is the McKinney Vento Act?

The McKinney-Vento Homeless Education Assistance Act is a federal law that ensures immediate enrollment and educational stability for homeless children and youth. It also may allow students to remain enrolled in their school of origin even if they move outside of their school's boundary (if feasible). McKinney-Vento provides federal funding to states for the purpose of supporting district programs that serve homeless students by assisting with:

- ◆ School stability
- ◆ School access
- ◆ Support for academic success

Child-centered, best interest decision making

Services for qualified Students may include:

- ◆ Transportation to and from school
- ◆ Free school breakfast and lunch
- ◆ School Supplies
- ◆ Clothing Vouchers
- ◆ Referrals to Social Service Agencies (i.e. medical, dental, vision, etc.)

* Unaccompanied Youth:

- ◆ Student that is not in the physical custody of a parent or guardian; student is "couch surfing" does not have a regular, fixed or adequate nighttime residence.
