3. During the investigation, you have the right to: (a) provide the district with information, documentation, and evidence concerning the alleged discrimination; (b) advise the district of the identity and location of any possible witness; and (c) all other rights set forth in law or in district policy.

4. The district will take reasonable steps to preserve confidentiality and will make every effort to prevent public disclosure of the names of the parties involved, except to the extent necessary to carry out the investigation. The district is interested in knowing your views about confidentiality issues and will try to accommodate them, subject to the district being able to fulfill its commitment to eliminate unlawful discrimination. The district's investigator, identified in #2, is also responsible for evaluating requests for confidentiality.
5. Third parties, district employees and students who are alleged to be unlawful discriminators may be entitled to due process and may be protected by certain confidentiality rights. Subject to the rights of students, employees and third parties, the district will make an effort to keep you advised of the progress of its investigation and of any decisions it reaches concerning the situation. If you have any questions concerning the progress of the investigation or the actions taken by the district to remediate any unlawful discrimination that may have occurred, please feel free to contact the Compliance Officer or the investigator identified previously in the notice.
6. A preponderance of evidence (i.e. more likely than not that the actions occurred) will be the standard used in investigating the complaint.
7. Where not prohibited by law, the district will provide written notice to the complainant and alleged discriminator of the outcome of the complaint. The accused has an equal opportunity to appeal the investigator's decision to the Compliance Officer, who shall (a) review the investigation and the investigative report; (b) may also conduct a reasonable investigation; (c) prepare a written report within 15 days of the appeal; and (d) send copies of the response to the complainant, the accused, and the building principal who conducted the initial investigation.
8. If it is concluded following the investigation that the allegations have merit, actions such as are consistent with the Student Code of Conduct, board policies and administrative regulations, district procedures, applicable collective bargaining agreements, and state and federal laws will be taken to remediate the situation. In addition, the district will follow up with the complainant to make sure that there is not a recurrence of the improper conduct. If there is any repeat of any improper conduct, the district can take additional action.
9. Retaliation by anyone against an individual who has reported improper conduct, including unlawful discrimination, is strictly forbidden and is prohibited by Title IX. Any instances of retaliation should be reported to the Compliance Officer and/or the investigator immediately.
