

AP French Summer Work Instructions

Teacher: Mrs. Erin Rupe

You will complete a journal entry on either a video or an article once a week for four weeks. You will also have a grammar packet that is divided into four weeks. The schedule is designed to be completed in this time frame, with due dates to help you regulate the time. Feel free to submit earlier. Please study the present, passé composé and imparfait forms of the verbs in the Verb Dictionary before returning to school. In addition, you should know which verbs take être as a helping verb in the past tense.

Verb Dictionary Instructions: PRINT THIS OUT and write the definition of the verb on the top line, with its helping verb (avoir or être) and past participle. Draw a line down each of the boxes so that you can write the verbs in the present tense and the imparfait. Remember, the imparfait is formed by taking the nous form of the present tense verb, dropping the “ons” and adding the imparfait endings – ais, ais, ait, ions, iez, aient. Please double check your work or look them up when unsure, so that you don’t study incorrectly. Create a folder in this work folder with your name, upload a photo of your work in a google document by the due dates into your folder.

Journal Instructions: Each week you will complete a journal entry. The first journal is a guided listening comprehension activity and the rest are open choice. Please try your best on the writing and remember that using Google Translate as anything other than a dictionary is an Honor Offense. Download the Word document or make a copy (DON’T USE ORIGINAL), complete it, including your name at the top, and submit each document by the due date into your labeled google folder inside this folder. I will be able to see the dates they were uploaded.
