

ACADEMIC

MODEL UNITED NATIONS:

June 7-10, Monday-Thursday, 9AM-Noon
Grades 6-12, Co-Ed
$200

This camp will explore the United Nations, a body founded after the Second World War to “save succeeding generations from the scourge of war.”

Using a variety of active learning techniques, students will learn about some of the world’s most pressing challenges. Each student will represent a state in the United Nations General Assembly, conduct research from that state’s perspective on a specific issue, and draft a General Assembly resolution. On the last day of the camp, students will debate and vote on the draft resolutions in a simulation. Click here to register,
