

Free resources for Carroll students and families to select good reading choices

Compiled by our librarian, Laurie Lingham and LS Language head, Irum Haque

Hyperlinks of the sites below will also be posted with grade-specific Summer Assignments.

ONLINE TEXTS

Flyleaf Publishing This link is to the Student Page. Flyleaf will be free through the 2020-21 school year. Our tutors use Flyleaf's titles because they contain controlled vocabulary in robust and beautifully illustrated stories.

American Literature Lots of traditional and historic literature to choose from, although your child may find the reading levels a challenge. The tabs that yield the most good reads are Children and Features.

ReadWorks ReadWorks offers richly illustrated eBooks for over 100 of our high-quality passages. Learn more about using eBooks with your child in our quick tutorial video: https://about.readworks.org/parents_remote.html

TITLE LISTS

A Book and a Hug Lists for reluctant readers; for boys, for girls; books by genre. Good selection tool for students, teachers and parents.

International Reading Association reading lists Published annually. Children's and teachers' choices, YA choices, award winners. Extensive selection.

Multnomah County Library book lists Thematic lists of good read-alouds and books for kids to read independently by grade level.

Reading Rockets Book advisory lists, advice for struggling readers that parents will find helpful.

Series & Sequels Look up kids' series by title or subject, or by book's title or author in this database of 4,900 series titles.