THE POLICY

The Salt Lake City School District Board of Education complies with all state requirements regarding the development of school calendars. Calendar options are developed by a district-wide shared governance committee, and then considered and voted on by the various school community councils. The district will then recommend that the board adopt the calendar that received the highest weighted approval. The above-referenced Parameters for District Calendars document fully details the district's transparent process for developing calendar options and includes guidance to schools on how to tailor the approved calendars to meet their individual needs.

The purpose of this policy is to guide the consideration, modification, and adoption of school calendars in order to best meet the needs of students, families, and district staff.
