Parish Events & Updates

We wish all students, teachers, and staff the best summer! God of wisdom, we thank you for all the gifts you have given us throughout this school year. We praise you for giving us life, for saving us in Christ, and for choosing us to be your people. As we come to the end of this school year, we voice our gratitude for the good things you have done in us, and we praise you for all who have shared in the work of this school. We ask you to bless them in your love and give them refreshment and peace. We praise you, God, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

britepaths

guiding families
to a brighter future

Thank you to all who donated and volunteered for this month's outreach project.

We collected around $6,500 in cash, checks, and gift cards for Britepaths to assist their Food

Bridge families! The cards will be sent out to our families next week so they can purchase fresh, healthy food while they work with our staff and volunteers to budget, pay off debt and become financially self-sufficient. Britepaths is thankful for all the ways we help their families each year.

All parishioners are invited to attend the next virtual Town Hall Meeting with Fr. Matt via Zoom on Thursday, June 17th at 7pm. This month's topic is to discuss OLGC Moving Forward. The staff will present how their mission areas are moving forward as many things might be redefined or reimaged. We ask that if you have specific questions that you would like addressed, please submit them ahead of time, using this link www.olgcva.org/townhall. Please signup for the Zoom using this link www.signupgenius.com/go/30e044ea8a72ea7fc1-olgc4 and the Zoom invite will be sent to you. The Meeting will be recorded for those who are unable to attend.

Farewell Mass & Receptions for Fr. John Dolan, OSFS on Sat. June 26 at 4pm & Sun. June 27 at 10am. Please come and say farewell to Fr. Dolan before he heads to his new assignment at Our Lady Star of the Sea in Cape May, NJ. We were lucky to have him here for an extended period of time and we thank him for all he has done with and for our parish, especially helping with outreach projects, Youth Ministry events, and caring for the home bound. Fr. Dolan will be celebrating the Saturday, June 25th 4pm Mass and the Sunday, June 27th 10am Mass and there will be receptions to follow. We wish him all the best!

CCF Registration for Next School Year is Open for Preschool - 8th Grade!

www.olgcva.org/faith-formation/children-youth/ccf-reg We pray that this finds you well! We will register as usual for CCF, hoping for the best for the Fall but with the understanding that we will most likely need to make adjustments to class sizes/times, session dates, e-learning opportunities, COVID-19 safety protocols, etc., along the way per OLGC Parish, Diocesan, State, and CDC guidelines. We will keep you informed as we go along and hope to know more in July or early August 2021. Classes will also be dependent on having enough catechists and volunteers.

We do need catechists for each class in order to hold that class whether it's in person or online. If you'd like to volunteer to teach, be an aide, hall/room monitor, or nurse/medical technician, please contact Amy MacKinnon, amackinnon@olgcva.org, if you'd like to help our kids in CCF to go boldly into the future!

SAVE THE DATE FOR VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL— Mon. July 12 - Fri. July 16, 2021 9am - 12:00 pm

This year's theme is "Treasured: Discovering You're Priceless to God." The activities are for rising Kindergartners through rising 6th graders and will be taking place on site at OLGC. We will need 20 registrants in order to make this experience feasible, as well as teen and adult volunteers.

Parish Updates & Events

Diocesan Updates

Statement of The Bishops of The Province of Baltimore And The Archdiocese of Washington June 2, 2021

Lifting the General Dispensation from the Obligation to Attend Mass

Enlace en español—www.arlingtondiocese.org/press-releases/2021/statement-of-the-bishops-of-the-province-of-baltimore-and-the-archdiocese-of-washington/#espanol

We, the Catholic Bishops of the Province of Baltimore and the Archdiocese of Washington, give thanks to Almighty God for the progress our country has made in curbing the coronavirus pandemic. The average number of new cases of COVID-19 continues to decline due to the observance of safety protocols and the increase of the availability of the vaccine. At this time, many places in our region are enjoying a return to some sense of normalcy. Therefore, we are lifting the dispensation of the Sunday and Holy Days Mass obligation in the Archdiocese of Baltimore, the Archdiocese of Washington, and the Dioceses of Arlington, Richmond, Wheeling-Charleston, and Wilmington and reinstating that obligation beginning on Saturday, June 26, 2021 and Sunday, June 27, 2021. We welcome and encourage the Faithful to return to full in-person participation of the Sunday Eucharist, the source and summit of our Catholic faith (cf. Code of Canon Law, canon 1246-1247 and Catechism of the Catholic Church, n. 2180). This obligation does not apply to those who are ill; those who have reason to believe that they were recently exposed to the coronavirus, another serious or contagious illness; those who are confined to their home, a hospital, or nursing facility; or those with serious underlying health conditions. One should consult his or her local pastor if questions arise about the obligation to attend Mass (Canon 1245 and the Catechism of the Catholic Church n. 2181). Safety protocols and other liturgical directives in each diocese remain in effect until modified or revoked by the respective Diocesan Bishop. Let us continue to be united in prayer for one another and for an end to the global pandemic.

Attention Class of 2021: The Associates of St. John Bosco invites rising college freshmen to attend a College Night at one of the following parishes: June 30 - St. Michael's; July 7 - Nativity; July 21 - St. Mary's Old Town (held at St. Mary's Lyceum); July 28 - St. Mary's Fredericksburg (held at Holy Cross Academy) College Nights are free to all students and provide resources and support for keeping your Catholic faith when entering college this fall. Catholic student representatives from George Mason, UVA, the University of Mary Washington, William & Mary, Virginia Tech, and other private and public schools will be on hand to share their experiences of being a Catholic college student. This is a great opportunity to network with other Catholic students and to receive resources for the transition to college only a few months away. The Nights begin at 7:00 PM, and students are encouraged to wear their college t-shirt to the event! Visit our website at www.asjb.org. Registration is limited to 50 students per night.  Our College Nights will be held according to all Virginia Covid-19 Guidelines for social distancing and group size.

70 OVER 70 – Recently, there was an article in the Washington Post written by Margaret Sullivan describing a new podcast called “70 Over 70” created by Max Linksy. It was inspired by Andre De Shields, who, at 73 years of age, received his first Tony Award in 2019. Rather than trying to thank dozens of people in a traditional acceptance speech, he shared the three cardinal rules of his “sustainability and longevity,” calling them “wisdom bombs.” He said, “One, surround yourself with people whose eyes light up when they see you coming. Two, slowly is the fastest way to get to where you want to be. And three, the top of the mountain is the bottom of the next. So keep climbing.”

Lansky’s brainchild is encouraging accomplished seniors to deliver more wisdom bombs in his new podcast as he interviews guests such as Norman Lear, Dionne Warwick, Dan Rather, James E. Clyburn, and others. His conversation with Sister Helen Prejean, the 82-year-old death-penalty-fighting Roman Catholic nun, was the centerpiece of the first episode. Although the guest list is diverse, common themes have emerged. Almost all talked about the importance of being fully present in the moment. (Thank you, St. Francis de Sales!)

For those of you who don’t know, a podcast is audio-only. You just listen, you don’t watch. It’s something like a radio show that you can listen to at any time. The website link for “70 Over 70” is <https://pineapple.fm/70-over-70>. If you scroll down to the little forward-pointing arrow, you should be able to listen to the first episode right there. If you return to the same website next week, a new episode will be there. There’s also a way to subscribe to the product, so it gets sent to you. (Thank you, Margaret Sullivan!)

DAY TRIP – Vienna Parks and Recreation has arranged a trip to Kenilworth Aquatic Gardens in Washington, DC, on Wednesday, June 23, from 9 am-3 pm. The program will take place over a 1.5-mile route. Lunch is on your own at Copper Canyon. The bus will leave from the Vienna Community Center. Fees are $51 for town residents; everyone else pays $61.75. Register at <https://www.viennava.gov>, following the prompts.

ELDER WISDOM – Retirement at 65 is ridiculous. When I was 65, I still had pimples! (George Burns, who lived to be 100.)
